

Bundesministerium für wirtschaftliche Zusammenarbeit
und Entwicklung

Approaches to Education for All in German Development Cooperation

by Andreas Pfanzelt

- 1. Education in German bilateral Development Cooperation
  - 1.1. Data and Facts 2008
  - 1.2. Programmatic Framework
  - 1.3. Thematic Areas
- 2. Approaches to reaching disadvantaged groups
  - 2.1. Policy & Strategy Papers
  - 2.2. Examples of promising interventions
- 3. Way Forward

1.1. Data and Facts 2008

- BMZ considers education as a key strategic area for poverty reduction and social development
- BMZ supports educational projects in practically every developing country to guarantee the human right of "Education for All".
- Germany as 2nd biggest donor in education worldwide

1.1. Data and Facts 2008

- ODA disbursement for education € 1.15 billion (15 % of total ODA)
- Subsectoral distribution
  - Basic Education: € 65 mio.
  - Secondary Education: € 3 mio.
  - Vocational Training: € 83 mio.
  - Higher Education: € 759 mio.
  - Training of specialists: € 50 mio.
- Regional distribution of education (total: € 1.15 billion):
Asia 48 %, Africa 22 %, Europe 13 %, Latin America 12 %, Others 5%

1.2. Programmatic Framework

- Millennium Development Goals
- Education for All Goals
- Education for All Fast-Track Initiative.

- Rights-based and holistic approach to education considering all levels and types of education

1.3. Thematic Areas

Educational Planning	Capacity Development	Quality in Education
Peace education and education for sustainable development	Mainstreaming HIV/Aids in education	Teacher Training
Mother-tongue and multilingual education	MDGs, EFA goals, EFA-FTI	Curriculum Development
Higher education institutions and science cooperation	Gender equality	Development of teaching and learning material
Monitoring and Evaluation	TVET	Non-formal education

2. Approaches to reaching disadvantaged groups

2.1. Policy & Strategy Papers

- Development Policy Action Plan on Human Rights 2008-2010
  - Focus on disadvantaged groups
- Position Paper: Basic Education for All
  - Relevance of non-formal basic education for disadvantaged children and youth
- Policy Paper: “Disability and Development”
  - rights-based, inclusive development approach and a social disability model

2.2. Examples of promising interventions

- Early inclusive education in Chile
- FTI "equity and inclusion tool"
- Social cash transfer programmes
- TVET programmes
- Non-formal education in Guatemala

3. Way Forward

- Consistent understanding
- Pragmatic concept of inclusive education
- Sharing of activities and monitoring/ evaluation data
- Capacity development of national governments

Thank you for your attention!

